

Mayor's Downtown Task Force

The goal of the taskforce is to address issues pertaining to the growth of the downtown area. This can include, but is not limited to: community needs, gaps in resources and amenities downtown, sign ordinances, looking at current codes/ordinances and researching or applying for grant applications to improve the appearance of the downtown area. All business or building owners, whether or not they reside within the city limits, as well as other West Liberty residents are welcome to serve on this ten-person board which includes an appointed member from the City Council, WE Lead and the Chamber of Commerce.
